For the use of our website, it is necessary that you have read and accept our Legal Notice, if you do not agree you must refrain from using it.

2. Intellectual and industrial property rights

The purpose of the Website is, in general, to provide the public with knowledge of the activity carried out by MIRAI, consisting of providing services related to consulting based on the creation of value for clients in the financial sector.

Within the content referred to in this section and which refers to our Website is included, but not limited to, its programming, editing, compilation and other elements necessary for its operation, designs, logos, text and/or graphics, which are the property of MIRAI or, if not, we have a license or express authorization from the rightsholders for their use. Regardless of the purpose for which they were intended, the total or partial reproduction, use, exploitation, distribution and commercialization of any content of the Website requires in any case the prior written authorization of MIRAI. Any unauthorized use of the previously specified content is considered a serious breach of the intellectual or industrial property rights of the holder of the rights.

The designs, logos, text and/or graphics not belonging to MIRAI and which may appear on the Website belong to their respective owners. From MIRAI, we recognize in favor of their owners the corresponding intellectual and industrial property rights, not implying their mere mention or appearance on the Website the existence of any rights or responsibility for them, nor any endorsement, sponsorship or recommendation by the same.

To make any comments regarding possible breaches of intellectual or industrial property rights, as well as on any of the contents of the Website, you can do so by sending an e-mail to gdpr@mirai-advisory.com.

3. Disclaimer of liability and warranties

The information and content of this Website is considered of a general nature and has a merely informative purpose, without guaranteeing full access to all of the contents, nor its completeness, correctness, validity or timeliness, nor its suitability or usefulness for a particular purpose.

MIRAI disclaims any liability of any kind arising from the information published on our Website provided that this information has been manipulated or introduced by a third party external to it.

4. Links policy

From this Website it is possible that you may be redirected to contents of third-party websites. Given that MIRAI cannot always control the contents introduced by third parties on their respective websites, MIRAI does not assume any type of responsibility with respect to such contents. In any case, we will proceed to the immediate withdrawal of our Website, or we will cease the redirection of the third party website in question in case there is any content that could contravene national or international legislation, morality or public order, bringing the content in question to the attention of the relevant authorities.

From MIRAI, we are not responsible for the information and content stored, including but not limited to, forums, chats, blogs generators, comments, social networks or any other means that allows third parties to independently publish content on our website. However, and in compliance with the provisions of Articles 11 and 16 of the Spanish Law of Services of the Information Society, we make ourselves available to all users, authorities and security forces, actively collaborating in the removal or, where appropriate, blocking of all content that may affect or contravene national or international law, the rights of third parties or morality and public order. In the event that the user considers that there is on the website any content that could be susceptible to this classification, please notify us immediately via email gdpr@mirai-advisory.com.

5. Applicable law and jurisdiction

The present conditions are originally written in Spanish and are subject to the applicable Spanish legislation. Any dispute arising from the use of the services offered or the contents of the Website shall be subject to the jurisdiction and competence of the courts of the city of Madrid, provided that this is legally possible. Otherwise, they will be submitted to the competent courts according to the legislation in force at any given time.
